

J. I. McFARLAND IS AP-POINTED MANAGER CEN-TRAL SELLING AGENCY
CANADIAN WHEAT POOL

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 24.—John I. McFarland of Calgary, has been appointed general manager of the central selling agency of the Canadian wheat pools.

The step was taken at the instigation of the seven lending banks which demanded a strengthening of the selling personnel of the pools before continuing their financial support.

So far as can be ascertained no definite assurance of help has been wrung from the federal government, but it looks as though some promise of help if wheat again tumbles to critical levels has been secured from the prime minister.

Premier Brownlee, who was earlier mentioned for the position of sales manager, seriously considered the offer, but decided to remain at his post at Edmonton. At one stage in negotiations the appointment of both Messrs. Brownlee and McFarland was discussed.

COMING EVENTS
FORESHADOWED

The Ladies of the Royal Purple are holding a dance in the Elks' Hall on Friday, Nov. 28th. Marquis Hotel Orchestra (Gerry's Radio Merry Makers). Supper will be served. Admission: Ladies $1.00; Gentlemen $1.00. Keep this date open.

IMPERTINENT

The traffic officer had raised his hand and the lady motorist stopped with a jerk. Said the officer as he drew out his little book: "As soon as I saw you come round the bend I said to myself, 'Forty-five, at least.'"

"Officer," remonstrated the lady indignantly, "you are very much mistaken. It's this hat that makes me look so old."—Motor Age.

MACLEOD RATEPAYERS IN FAVOR OF J. SWINARTON
CONTINUING AS MAYOR

This week Mayor Swinarton received a written request signed by about seventy-five prominent ratepayers and electors of the Town of Macleod requesting that he allow his name to stand as a candidate for Mayor for a further term. It is distinctly complimentary to the Mayor to receive such a request signed as it is by so many persons interested in the continued welfare of the town. It is confidently asserted that if the petition had been more widely circulated it would have been even more fully signed. As it was, many people, hearing of the circulation of the petition asked for a chance to sign it.

Since the resignation of J. W. McDonald early in the year, Mayor Swinarton has occupied the position of chief magistrate with credit to himself and the town. Before assuming the duties of the mayoralty, Mr. Swinarton was an active member of the council for 9 years, and chairman of the hospital board for 9 years. Mr. Swinarton has been in close touch with the work of the council and was extremely active in connection with the municipal policies which have brought the town into first-class financial standing.

The town would do well to tender Mr. Swinarton an acclamation. He is an extensive property owner, and measured by the success of his past public service, there would be an excellent prospect under his leadership of the town's continuing in its course of progress.

The ratepayers would evince excellent judgment by availing themselves of the opportunity of securing without cost the services of a chief executive of the outstanding ability of Jack Swinarton.

CHRIST CHURCH W. A.
ANNUAL BAZAAR WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL AF-FAIR

Saturday afternoon, Nov. 22nd, was again a busy and lively afternoon in the Macleod Town Hall, when the ladies of Christ Church W. A. held their annual bazaar and afternoon tea. The weatherman was good in giving them a lovely afternoon, and had the country roads been passable, the affair would have been a greater success. Very few of the country friends were able to get in, but the townspeople came out in large numbers and crowded the hall the whole afternoon, keeping the ten tea tables busy all the time. The pantry table was quickly cleared and a large amount of fancy work was sold, satisfying the ladies of the Aid with the financial result, considering climatic conditions.

Mrs. James Hartley, the energetic president, had everything well organized, and was supported as usual by a coterie of earnest willing members of the church, all anxious to make the bazaar a success. The fancy work table was in charge of Mrs. J. Smith and Miss A. Wilson. The pantry table, Mrs. W. Armer and Mrs. T. Brown. Xmas table, Mrs. A. J. Redding. GAIR AND BRIGHT ARE
RE-ELECTED AT RURAL CONVENTION

Calgary, Nov. 20.—For the ninth successive term, John Gair of Killam, was re-elected president of the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts without opposition at the convention being held here. Harry W. Bright of Macleod, was also returned for another term as vice-president of the organization.

Chow, Ethel Pearson, Connie Reid, Millie Vise, Mae Grier.

St. James' Church, Hazel-mere had also a work and pantry table in charge of Miss S. Patterson and a tea table in charge of Miss Louise Collar.

The Junior Aid girls of Christ Church had a candy and fancy stall, with Mrs. R. Vise and Mrs. H. Dowson assisting the girls. Mrs. J. Watson and Mrs. Wm. Walshe presided at the ticket table for the tea. Mrs. Vise, violin, Miss H. Vise, piano and Miss Jean Hilliard, piano, played a number of selections during the afternoon which greatly delighted the large crowds.

HE PASSED

A Wall Street broker, desiring a clerk, asked the following question on an examination, "Who formed the first company?"

A bright youth, a bit puzzled but not to be floored, wrote: "Noah successfully floated a company while the rest of the world was in liquidation." His application was accepted. —Unidentified clipping.

SARGON RAPIDLY BECOMES KNOWN
OVER CONTINENT

If you found a medicine that was of such great benefit to you that you would go to the trouble of sending it to relatives and friends in distant countries, you would have to be convinced in your own mind that it possessed real merit, wouldn't you?

That's just what hundreds of people throughout the United States have been doing with Sargon, the new formula recently introduced in Canada.

From all over America and wherever Sargon has been introduced, thousands of letters have been received from grateful users telling of the gratifying results that have been accomplished by this celebrated medicine.

Thousands Express Gratitude

On November 27, 1929, a letter dated November 23, was received at the Sargon offices advising that in one week one drug firm alone had received orders for Sargon to be shipped to Cavite, Philippine Islands; Coco Solo, Canal Zone; Belem, Brazil; Ireland, and Paris, France.

Only recently a well-known resident of Denver, Colorado, who had been restored to health by Sargon, sent a full treatment to London, England, to his sister, who is the wife of an executive of one of the greatest retail drug firms in the British Empire.

During the past month there appeared in the Toronto papers the statement of a well-known World War veteran whose health had been greatly impaired while in the service, who stated among other things, that he owed his restoration to health to two bottles of Sargon sent him by a friend in Minneapolis.

Letters Received From the Northwest

From Minnesota and Wisconsin and throughout the Northwest, many letters of this kind have been received advising that users of Sargon are sending it to relatives back in their old countries of Sweden and Norway.

Many such letters and endorsements have been received from men of prominence, including former governors, business and professional men, mayors, state and county officials, and even ministers of the Gospel who have deemed it their duty to come forward and tell what Sargon has done for them.

Only a short time ago, for instance, the vice president of one of the South's largest corporations walked into a Memphis drug store and purchased his sixth bottle of Sargon. He had taken three bottles himself and stated that he had received such wonderful benefit from it, he was getting the other for relatives and friends.

Four Men in One Firm
Are Taking It

Another well-known business man who had also been greatly benefited by Sargon, recommended it to his business associates and employees, so that four different men in one firm are taking the Sargon treatment as the result of only one bottle originally sold.

These are only a few of thousands of such cases which have arisen since Sargon was placed on the market in April, 1928.

Sargon is extensively advertised, it is true, but such a large and rapidly growing demand could not be brought about by advertising alone. One bottle is sold in a neighborhood through advertising, but ten more may be sold in that community after the first bottle produces results. People are always willing to talk about their ailments, but they are more than willing to tell others of the medicine that helps them.

Not a day nor a week passes that does not bring hundreds of statements from the people concerning the good this med-

INSULA

Tokyo, Nov. 26.—(A.P.)—At least 215 persons were killed and several hundred injured today in eastern Japan's most destructive earthquake since the disaster of 1923.

Striking a score of towns and villages of northern Izu peninsula, the playground of Japan, at 4.03 a. m. (2.03 p. m., E.S.T., Tuesday), the quake destroyed or seriously damaged 4,500 buildings according to an official estimate. It climaxed a series of earthquakes in that area since Nov. 10.

With communications partially restored in the stricken area, which is 125 miles southwest of here, authorities began the tragic tally of the casualties. The home ministry's announcement this evening of 215 deaths was matched by a survey by Rengo News Agency showing 219 dead.

icine is doing, and reciting the circumstances of case after case that would convince the most skeptical.

Sargon has attained its prestige and widespread popularity through actual results accomplished — not empty promises. This celebrated medicine may now be obtained in Macleod at The Rexall Drug Store, who have been awarded the exclusive Sargon agency for this city.—Adv.

"PRE-WAR NORMALCY"

The business man or manufacturer whose hopes for the future are wrapped up in an expected return to pre-war normalcy is out on a limb. For pre-war normalcy never will return. That's history.

We still hear suggestions and hopes of reverting to old-time methods and the pre-war business basis, but, according to Dr. Julius Klein of the United States Department of Commerce, "such a retrogression would be about as simple as an attempt to return to the middle ages—and about as profitable."

There isn't a great deal of room in business these days for Aunt Sarah, who inherited a shoe factory and insisted that the factory go on making high-laced shoes because Uncle Ezra sold 'em in the '70s. For business never was more dynamic and volatile than it is today, with a constantly changing front in practically all lines.

Since 1921, Mr. Klein points out, business has left as monuments of its progress a long succession of junk-heaps of discarded processes, antiquated ideas and obsolete policies.

There have been tragedies of those who clung too long to revered and once profitable practices.

The new business man must be eager to take advantage of the slightest changes in trend. It is no day for secrecy. Backward glimpses should not be longed and desirous of what is behind, but intelligently inquisitive of facts.

Index numbers and carefully plotted charts and statistical tables have come to have a new meaning. The business man must be able to spot his position, and if it's wrong, correct it.

HERE'S A PUZZLE FOR YOU

Very often, in the stress of modern life, men seek ways and means to forget their troubles, clear their brains of details, get a fresh start.

We suggest a puzzle that will give you brain exercise, take your mind off your daily toil:

Do we move through time, while time stands still; or do we stand still while time rushes past us, or are we both moving at the same speed toward some unknown goal; or are we both standing still while some third factor, outside, does the moving?

This is not a question for scientists, who will provide scientific answers proving this or that. It is merely a bit of brain exercise that will do you good.

A CHAPTER IN THE HUMAN STORY

Far back in the mountains of Mexico wandering merchants report discovery of an isolated tribe, members of which speak a sort of Arabic and have many Arabian customs. Tribal history dates back 400 years, nearly to the time of Columbus.

How did these people get there? Were some adventurous Arab traders blown across the Atlantic, to land on the coast of Mexico, and from there travel up into the mountains? Interesting speculation.

SUNSHINE NEEDS AID IN RELIEVING DISTRESS

An organization which is working twelve months in the year and particularly during the cold weather months to help those in distress is the Calgary Herald Sunshine Santa Claus Fund. Every year at this time an appeal is made to contribute to the fund and assistance is sought, not only in the City of Calgary, but throughout the province for the reason that the Sunshine Society helps to relieve suffering in various parts of Alberta, as well as in the City of Calgary. Sunshine has been functioning for eighteen years and in that period has relieved the distress of thousands.

It is a good thing for Alberta that such an organization exists because there are many cases which cannot be assisted through official sources and yet, if the cases are not helped, the suffering would be intense.

Those who are in the happy position where their lives are comfortable are invited to consider the plight of those who lack the common necessities of life and are invited to show their warm heartedness through the medium of contributions to the Sunshine Society.

FIRST RATE HOTELS or POOR STOPPING PLACES

Under the present Liquor Act of Alberta there is the closest supervision of all licensed hotels and a plan of continued improvement of the operation of Hotels is possible only under the Act as it now stands.

The Commissioner says who shall run the licensed hotels and the Liquor Board inspectors exercise the closest supervision, demanding as the licensee's funds permit, better equipment and better service to the public.

What a difference when compared with Prohibition days! No supervision, poor furnishings, poor table. No control whatsoever.

NOW IT'S ALL CHANGED

RED CROSS PUBLICITY

We are interested in the announcement that the United and Presbyterian C. G. I. T. groups have decided to put on a tag day for Red Cross. In making this decision the young ladies comprising these groups are getting behind a really worth while enterprise, and deserve a great deal of credit for their willingness to assist the work that Red Cross is trying to do.

Because of general conditions Red Cross is facing a most difficult time in carrying on this year, and although their expenditures have been cut to the absolute minimum, at the moment they are over ten thousand dollars short of meeting their requirements up to date for this year's operations. The Society had a heavy deficit last year, and as they have no reserve fund on which to draw, it means that they are definitely facing curtailment and possibly discontinuance of all the work they are doing, unless they are able to balance their budget this year.

Nearly $40,000 will be spent by the Red Cross on the Crippled Children's Hospital work and the Junior Red Cross this year, and we feel that everyone will realize that despite conditions locally, the greatest possible support must be given to the Tag Day so that the citizens of Macleod will feel that they have done their part in ensuring the continuance of Red Cross work. It will be altogether too bad if the Children's Hospitals have to be closed and the crippled kiddies being treated there have to be sent home uncured because of the lack of a few dollars.

We feel sure that this appeal will not fall on deaf ears.

A Two-Sided Story

Following is a letter that appeared in a Western newspaper, written by one of its readers. There is information in it for storekeepers: "Your paper is always boosting that home-town buying is the right thing, for if everybody bought away we would not have a town very long. In your editorial a week or two ago you said there would be less buying from catalogues if every merchant would advertise, because it is advertising that keeps the catalogue men going. Well, I believe that's right too, but one thing I would like to see all the local merchants do, and there are more who think the same, and that is for them to print the prices as much as they can in their advertising. And I also think that if the prices are going up they should say so and tell why, if they know. These times we all have to bite our nickles, or most of us, and we certainly don't like the idea of prices going up on staples particularly, and not a word about it till you reach the store. I am not an advertising expert, but I know what I would like to see in my local paper along that line and that is a lot of genuine information about goods and prices every week. Then we should feel better and if we were being fairly treated there would be less sending away. I hear this talked about a lot, so thought I would write you."

Don't Hunt For Bargain Insurance

Some people make a habit of shopping around for insurance but make the mistake of shopping not for quality—not for sound dependable protection—but for bargains in premiums and for fancy policies that are sold with the argument that they give more protection for the same amount of money. Don't fool yourself and don't let any salesman fool you. The result of such bargain hunting may be ruin at a time when loss occurs and you attempt to collect.

The Granum schools present a great activity during these days on account of the preparations going forward for Christmas, in addition to the steady business in connection with the curriculum. Each of the teachers is being responsible for an important part of the annual Christmas concert. Miss Jell, in the Primary Room is sponsoring drills and exercises. Mr. Barry is arranging for songs and dramatics from his room. Miss Calder has begun the work on a quite elaborate light opera, and Principal Gidman is organizing an interesting Minstrel show. Mr. Moffatt, the Musical Director for the Granum Schools, is co-operating and collaborating. The staff of the schools has made a good impression by its promotion of athletics, including a Girls' Basketball Team, and now a Hockey Team being trained by Mr. Barry, who is an accomplished hockeyist. A good work-out was held at Willow Creek last Saturday morning under Mr. Barry's tutelage, when about twenty boys went through their paces and showed that Granum will have a pretty good school team.

A meeting was held last Friday evening at the town hall to discuss the matter of a skating rink for the coming season. Quite a number of the men of the town were present and expressed themselves as interested because of the need of skating for the children and young people. Different plans were discussed, as some felt that it might be best to let the rink be contracted to someone who would thus conduct it as a business proposition, while others urged that after all it should be a community affair, and if it lacked anything financially, citizens would have to come to the rescue any way. Finally it was resolved to appoint an executive to whom should be left the necessary steps of securing a rink manager, arranging hours of skating, and of hockey practice, etc. It was urged that it would be necessary to enforce rules as to having tickets, and as to the practice of economy in the conduct of the business. The following officers were elected: President, A. Easton, Secretary-Treasurer, B. Gidman. Other members of the executive: Messrs. G. R. Torrence, M. Reynolds, and A. H. Rowe.

Granum folk will be given the opportunity to meet and hear the minister of the First United Church of Lethbridge next Sunday, November 30th, when Rev. Roy C. Taylor, B.A., of that Church, will occupy the pulpits at United Church, Granum, and at Daley Creek. Mr. Taylor is a young man who has nevertheless had much experience in Alberta, and spent several years of successful effort among the Indian people of this Province, being missionary at Hobbema. It had been arranged to have him give his well-known illustrated lecture on "Missionary Work Among the Indian People of Alberta" on Monday evening at Granum, but, as he has to return to his own church for a Monday morning meeting, he has offered to give his missionary address in an abridged form after the service Sunday evening. This address will be illustrated with stereopticon slides and will be a living account of the speaker's own experiences. Rev. Mr. Taylor is among the prominent graduates of Alberta University, and is known as a fine speaker. He will have charge in Granum morning and evening, and at Daley Creek at half past two o'clock.

Several of the Argyle Rebekah Ladies motored to Claresholm Tuesday evening to attend the District Convention, among which were Mrs. J. Clarke, Mrs. W. Jell, Mrs. S. Smith, Mrs. S. Ellis, Mrs. J. Reynolds, Mrs. H. Dimm, Mrs. B. Clarke, Mrs. C. Reynhold and Mrs. Allison.

Mrs. J. I. Dimm entertained the Granum Young People's Society on Monday evening last when thirty gathered at her hospitable home and greatly enjoyed themselves in a social evening. Misses Freda Sherman and Rita Lantinga had charge of the programme and conducted it very interestingly. Among the contest winners were W. Henker, Fenton Blair and Dorcas Rowe. Mrs. Dimm was assisted by Mrs. MacGregor in serving the refreshments, and after the sandwiches, coffee and cake, most delicious ice cream, manufactured at home, was served by the hostesses. The entertainment left nothing to be desired.

CASH OR 30 DAYS

"The old order changeth giving place to new,
Lest one good custom should corrupt the world."

With the very life blood of the prairie country ebbing away in the diminishing value of wheat, nature's greatest cereal, and mankind's greatest blessing among food products, one is forced to take stock of conditions.

We have grubstaked the country, and our payment is hard luck stories, the truth of which we know too well, but which the wholesalers will have none of. We must pay whether we collect or not, or lose our most valued asset, our credit standing.

Therefore, we can no longer continue to extend credit where accounts haven't been paid. We aren't quite convinced that in many instances harm isn't done by extending credit. Most people use credit intelligently, having in mind always the day of settlement. Unfortunately some people abuse it.

We have always striven to give our customers a square deal. We hope to do even better for them in future by insisting upon cash or 30 day terms.

Even the splendid prizes offered on this occasion could not induce the friends of the lodge to pull through the snow, only 15 tables played progressive whist, which is just half the usual number. The winners of the prizes were, Mrs. L. A. Dixon, ladies' 1st, a ham; Mrs. T. F. Dixon, ladies' 2nd, a box of apples. L. A. Dixon, gents 1st, 100 lb. sack flour; W. H. McNab, gents 2nd, a slab of bacon. Refreshments were served after the cards. Quite a number of the younger set came in for the dance, which swelled the crowd considerably, putting considerable life and animation into the affair. Dancing was kept up till 1 o'clock, delightful music being supplied by Alf Booth and his boys, who appeared in their fifty new uniforms of dark crimson velvet jackets, yellow silk sashes and fancy flare pants. The orchestra consisted of Alf Booth, piano; Glen and Clarence Ringland, saxophones; Andy MacKay, drums.

HARRY RICHMAN, BROADWAY'S FAVORITE ENTERTAINER, IN "PUTTIN' ON THE RITZ" — STAGE STAR AND NIGHT CLUB KING AT HEAD OF NOTABLE CAST PLAYS SONG AND DANCE MAN IN SINGING, TALKING AND DANCING FILM EXTRAVAGANZA OF GAY WHITE WAY — THURS. — FRI. — SAT.

One of Broadway's most brilliant personalities comes to the screen world for the first time in "Puttin' on the Ritz," the United Artists all-dialogue musical extravaganza which opens its local engagement Thursday at the Empress Theatre.

That personality is Harry Richman, perhaps the most versatile of all the masters of song and comedy along the famous street of entertainment.

For three years the star of George White's "Scandals," Richman is celebrated in many ways. His golden voice has started many popular songs on the way to success.

His phonograph records sell more copies, according to music house reports, than those of any other popular singer. His voice and his wit have made his night clubs the most exclusive after-hour resorts in New York City. He is a popular entertainer over the radio, and a headline attraction during his occasional brief engagements in vaudeville.

Splendid Cast Brings "Dawn Patrol" to the Screen as Most Human Drama of War in the Air — Magnificent Story Stars Richard Barthelmess, With Fairbanks, Jr., Neil Hamilton and Other Distinguished Actors in Cast — Mon.-Tues.-Wed.-Thurs.

From any angle you may care to view it, "The Dawn Patrol," starring Richard Barthelmess, is a splendid production. Widely heralded as an epic of the air, showing the heroism of youthful aviators in the World War, "The Dawn Patrol" surpasses anything of the kind that has been seen on the screen. This may sound like an exaggerated statement, but actually it is justified by the picture.

While Richard Barthelmess is the outstanding figure in the role of a squadron commander, on a battlefield in France, other characterizations are so splendidly conceived and presented that no one individual stands out pre-eminently.

As in any true work of art, there is a harmonizing of action that creates a definite impression and leaves the spectator vividly conscious of having witnessed something true and fine and lasting.

The screen has brought nothing more poignant than several of the scenes as acted by Barthelmess and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. Without being over sentimental, they go straight to the heart in arousing sympathy for the young flier played by Fairbanks, who is ready to go to his doom with a smile on his lips.

In following the picture, one is made to feel the devastating effects of war, the breaking down of nervous resistance and above all, the incomparable spirit manifested through unselfish heroism.

Prominent in the superb cast assembled under the direction of Howard Hawks are Neil Hamilton, William Janney, James Finlayson, Clyde Cook, Gardner James, Edmund Breon and Frank McHugh—surely a striking assemblage of names. Each one of the players is ideally suited to the type needed and from beginning to end no false note is sounded.

"The Dawn Patrol," an adaptation of "The Flight Commander" by John Monk Saunders, is a picture for all time reflecting the greatest credit on all connected with the production. Howard Hawks displayed a fine sense of values in his direction of the story.

PEACE AND QUIET

Mark Twain once wrote on a Missouri newspaper. A superstitious subscriber wrote in saying that he had found a spider in his paper and asked if it was a sign of good or bad luck. Mark Twain wrote and printed this answer.

"Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over your paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store and spin his web across the door, and live a life of undisturbed peace ever afterwards."
